

Semi-Annual High School Orientation and Portfolio Development Workshops

Grace Bolin, a member of LCHEA and homeschool veteran of 23 years, is the Director of LEAH, a 3rd Option Association in the Low-country. She authored A High School Handbook for Homeschooling in South Carolina, and presents High School Orientations and Portfolio Development Workshops twice a year. The High School Orientation is a 3-hr. survey of planning and documenting a high school program at home. The Portfolio Development Workshop is an informal 2-hr. roundtable discussion that will help the parent learn how and what to keep for the student portfolio as required by law. Both events are open to the community.
